

Data Protection Code of practice

PS Dental Care complies with the 1998 Data Protection Act and this policy describes our procedures for ensuring that personal information about patients is processed fairly and lawfully.

The personal data we hold

To provide the patients with a high standard of dental care and attention, we need to hold personal information about them. This personal data includes:

- Your past and current medical and dental condition, personal details such as age, address, telephone number, email address and your general medical practitioner's details.
- Radiographs, clinical photographs, Ct Scans, study models
- Information about the treatment that we have provided or propose to provide and its cost
- Notes of conversations/incidents about your care, for which a record needs to be kept
- Records of consent to treatment
- Correspondence with other health care professionals relating to them, for example in the hospital or community services.

Reasons for holding this information

We need to keep comprehensive and accurate personal data about our patients to provide them with safe and appropriate dental care. We also need to process personal data about you in order to provide care under private or NHS treatment.

How we process the data

We will process personal data that we hold about you in the following way:

Retaining information

We will retain your dental records while you are a practice patient and after you cease to be a patient, for at least 1 year or, for children, until age of 25, whichever is the longer.

Security of information

Personal data about you is held in the practice's computer system and /or in manual filing system (stored boxes where are the cards placed)

The information is not accessible to the public, only authorised members of staff have access to it and it's password protected. Our computer system has secure audit trails and we back-up information routinely.

Disclosure of information

In order to provide proper and safe dental care, we may need to disclose personal information about you to:

- General medical practitioner
- The hospital or community dental services
- Other health professionals caring for the patients
- Inland Revenue
- Private dental schemes of which the patient is a member

Disclosure will take place on a 'need -to-know' basis. Only those individuals/ organisations who need to know in order to provide care to you- or in order to ensure the proper administration of Government (whose personnel are covered by strict confidentiality rules)- will be given the information. Only the information that the recipient needs to know will be disclosed.

In very limited circumstances or when required by law or a court order, personal data may be disclosed to a third party not connected with your health care. In all other situations, disclosure that is not covered by this Code of Practice will only occur when we have your specific consent.

Where possible, you will be informed of these requests for disclosure.

Access

You have the right of access to the data that we hold about you and receive a copy. Access may be obtained by making a request in writing and the payment of a fee of up to £ 10 for records held on computer. We will provide a copy of the record within 40 days of receipt of the request and fee (where payable) and an explanation of your record should you require it.

If you do not agree

If you do not wish personal data that we hold about you to be disclosed or used in the way that is described in this Code of Practice, please discuss the matter with your dentist. You have the right to object, but this may affect our ability to provide you with dental care.
